Obituary

ANTOINETTE DENISE BRIDGES-TAYLOR, affectionately called "Skee" or "Toni" by family and friends, was born on May 25, 1970 in Baltimore, Maryland to Sarah McKenzie and Benjamin Bridges. Antoinette departed this life on Sunday, April 13, 2014.

Antoinette was raised by her maternal aunt Annie R. White-Mason. Antoinette attended Baltimore City Public Schools, graduating from Walbrook Senior High School in 1988. Antoinette's first job was with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, D.C., and she later became a Correctional Officer with Maryland Department of Corrections until she retired. Antoinette had an eagerness to learn and after retirement decided to further her education earning two bachelor's and two master's degrees in education from Strayer University.

On August 25, 1995, the apple of Antoinette's eye was born, Joy Treasure Gibbs. Antoinette and Joy shared a special mother and daughter bond and loved each other unconditionally.

On November 15, 2001, Antoinette married her love, Mark Taylor and was blessed with the pleasure of adopting a son, Joshua Carl Berry-Taylor.

Antoinette's main focus was education for herself and her children. She loved her family and close friends and expanded her family by becoming a Foster Care Parent with Baptist Family. Antoinette touched the lives of many foster care children throughout the years treating them as she would her own. She had a special bond with Davon Pompey, whom she raised from six weeks old. “ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Acts 24:15 lovingly declares- "There is going to be a resurrection."

Also, 1 Corinthians 15:26 reveals- "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing."
