

Anton Leo Henderson

February 17, 1956 - November 21, 2022

Anton L. Henderson, Sr. was born on February 17, 1956 in Richmond, Virginia to Lawrence Henderson and Pinkie Henderson. He was preceded in death by his parents and other family members Mary Ann Campbell and Anton L. Henderson, Jr.

Anton accepted Christ as his Savior at a very early age. He attended Love Center of Unity where he received his spiritual blessings.

He graduated from John F. Kennedy High School Class of 1974. He retired from E.I. Dupont in 2015 as a technical assistant. He served 40+ years of dedicated service. He was a very comical person and was a jack of all trades and a great entrepreneur.

Anton was united in holy matrimony to Vergie Joyner on December 23, 1978 in Richmond, Virginia. That union was blessed with three children. She took on the role of his caregiver. Anton was very protective of his family, always preparing for the what if and when. He was our go to for everything. He will truly be missed!!

He enjoyed gardening as well as being a great bowler. Anton loved working on cars. He also collected and refurbished antiques.

On Monday, November 21, 2022, Anton was called home to have eternal peace. He leaves to cherish his memory, his loving wife Vergie Henderson; children Dashana Henderson, Tyree Henderson (Rodneisha); grandchildren, Hasuan Bagby, Hakim Bagby, Taylor Carter, Kaydence Henderson; niece Phara Campbell-Baylor (Clarence); sister-in-law, Vivian Joyner of Auburn, New York; brother-in-laws, Alton Joyner, Dennis Joyner and Michael Joyner of Auburn, New York; a host of great nieces and nephews and a devoted friend Dennis "Dap" Mallory.
