

Antonino M. Stephens

December 17, 1958 - October 2, 2024

ANTONINO MAURICE STEPHENS, son of Delores Turner and late William D. Stephens, was born December 17, 1958, in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life October 2, 2024, after a lengthy illness.

At a young age, Antonino attended Centennial United Methodist Church and as an adult was baptized by immersion at a river in Maryland. He received his education in the Baltimore City School System and graduated from Lake Clifton Senior High School. He held several jobs including working a short time in the National Guards. He had a love of driving trucks and worked for the Blue Ridge Oil Company as a truck driver until the company was sold.

Affectionately known as “Anton” to his family and friends, he was very free hearted and kind. His helpful and giving nature is the reason he was so popular in the neighborhood and was loved by many. He had a good heart and looked out for his family and friends whenever possible. He was very strong-willed and private, and even with his illness he never complained. He lived his life on his own terms.
