“ My sympathy to the family. i have known Tony since he came to the Guild. We had a great wotking relationship. His humor and easy way with the children was a joy. He was one of the "good guys" I will certainly miss him here. You his family, and especially his daughter will be in my prayers. Jade please know that your daddy would want you to do your very best in school this year although it will be difficult after this loss, bear in mind his dreams for you. All the best.##imported-begin##Fay Allen##imported-end##

“ I have known Tony for the past 10 years and in all that time always was amazed by how infectious his smile was. I will always remember him for the lightness of his being, the quiet positive attitude he exuded, the love of life he had for everything and everyone and the way he would go out of his way to help people. Tony was happy with what he had, not what he didn't have. I will miss his capacity to light up a room with his smile, laughter and energy and know that I was a better person for having him as a friend.##imported-begin##Robert Lin##imported-end##

“ Tony started here at the Guild a few months after I did and we became instant friends. It didn't take me long to realize that there were no strangers to Tony, only friends he had yet to meet. I will miss Tony's positive energy and heart-warming smile and brief visits to my office (the quiet room) where he would often stop in to take a break from it all, sometimes sharing his thoughts, sometimes taking a brief moment of peaceful reflection before he dashed off to see who might need his help. My heart is heavy because he is no longer with us, but I thank God I had the chance to meet Tony. My life and memories are much richer because our paths crossed. Tony's "Guild Family" has you in our prayers. May God comfort you in this time of sorrow. Sincerely, Cynthia B. (co-worker)###imported-begin##Cynthia Basnight###imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ I'd like to express my deepest sympathy to Mr. Davis' family and friends. The untimely loss of a dear loved one is very painful and difficult to bear; that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." However, God promises to do away with that enemy, death, and all the pain it causes at 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. I hope this message comforts your hearts.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I'am sorry to here of your lost. So very young, but the bible brings us comfort when we read of John 11:20-25, Jesus was touched by Martha's sorrow that her brother died. He felt for him too.This brings us joy to know that he has the power to do what is mention at John 11:38-43. So continue to read the bible for comfort.##imported-begin##Kevin Tucker##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. My husband and I have experienced many tragedies through the years and the comfort from the Bible is what has strengthened us. One such comforting verse is Job 14:14,15- "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?...I shall wait..You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." These verses inform us that Almighty God will raise dead loved ones to life and that he "yearns"or strongly desires to resurrect many. Many will return to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Isaiah 65:17, 2 Peter 3:13) May you also receive much comfort and hope as you think over these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Dear family of Antonio, may the prayers and endearing messages of comfort from loving friends help you to get through this sorrowful time. One thing for certain, we have a loving heavenly father who knows the grief we suffer when we lose a loved one in death. But rest assured, he has a wonderful purpose to end all sickness and death, and restore life back to our loved ones who have died. His word promises; the hour is coming when no resident will say, "I am sick". "The people dwelling in the land will be those pardoned for their error. Also Acts 24:15 promises that the dead will be resurrected. All of us hate to see a family lose someone they love in death. We wish we could erase their pain. So if we feel that way, imagine how the God of love feels who created us all. 1st John 4:8 lets us know that God is love. The bible says that he loved the world so much that he sent us his only-begotten Son so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life. John 3:16. One day that wonderful purpose will come to pass, and all obedient mankind will be able to live in peaceful, secure conditions; just as it was in the beginning. Isaiah 55:11, and 2nd Peter 3:13. May the God of all comfort continue to comfort you in the days ahead. 2nd Cor 1:3,4.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I found much comfort from this scripture, and I hope it will comfort you, too. Revelation chapter 21:4 "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." If you would like to learn more about this hope from God's Word. Please, contact me via my email. Sincerely, C.Bain##imported-begin##Charlotte Bain##imported-end##
