

Antonio Douglas Wood

October 3, 1960 - June 4, 2009

ANTONIO D. WOOD, son of Gwendolyn T. Fletcher and Forest Lee Wood, was born on October 3, 1960 at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on June 4, 2009. Antonio received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. His closet friends and family knew him as a jokester. He always knew how to make everyone laugh. There was something about his laugh that even on your worst day made you crack up laughing from his imitations of people and scenes from television and movies. He was also a great lover of video games; he loved to watch the Dave Chappelle Show with a cold brew in his hand. Antonio really enjoyed his frequent visits with his brother. They would get together and talk about the week they had, having a great time laughing and joking about everything a brother could understand. Antonio leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Lucrezia Wood; his mother, Gwendolyn Fletcher; his brother, Steven Wood; his sister, Melissa Smith; his three nieces, Curistan Smith, Tishia Cherry, Amiaria Cherry; and a host of family and friends. Antonio is welcomed on his journey by: his grandmother Muriel Smith; his aunt, Linda Smith; his great-aunt, Helen Maddox; and his great-uncle, Calvin Maddox.
