

Antonio Garcia Wallace

April 3, 1957 - September 30, 2009

ANTONIO GARCIA WALLACE was born on April 3, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. His parents were the late Elisha Shaw and Sarah "Sarie" Wallace. Antonio was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. In earlier years, he was employed by London Fog and also worked with his father in construction and did home improvement. He married Sandra Coppage and from this union Antonio G. Wallace Jr. and Brian L. Wallace. In 1995, he journeyed to New York with hopes of becoming drug free and by faith he accomplished his goal. Antonio who we called, Tony resided there for 14 years and was employed by Volunteers of America as a painter and then was promoted to a driver. Tony remained there until he retired due to his illness. While he was there he shared the Word of God and his testimony with the guys and others. He attended Memorial Baptist Church in Harlem, New York and he sang on the choir. He met Ms. Toni Gill in New York and within his 14 years there she became his finance. Antonio, who was also known as "Walley Bird", was short tempered at times but he was a kind hearted man and he loved his family. He was a bold and direct person and was known for speaking his mind. Tony had an encounter with God, experienced the Holy Spirit and was delivered from drug use. He acknowledged that it was only the hand and grace of God and he was thankful. Antonio had two brothers and two sisters who preceded him in death; Elisha Wallace Jr., Lorenzo Wallace, Santa E. Wallace and Bernadette Savage. Antonio leaves to cherish in his memory: his fiancé, Toni Gill, his children, Calita Horsey, Antonio G. Wallace

Jr. and Brian L. Wallace; grandchildren, Andrew Horsey, Samige Horsey, Antonio G. Wallace III and Shaundell G. Wallace; his sisters, Carolyn Scott, Yvonne Brown, Deborah Wallace and Gregory Wallace; three aunts, Bernice Green, Gloria Perez and Gale Perez; and host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Antonio Garcia Wallace

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I would like to express my sympathy to the Wallace family. Mourning, outcry, pain and tears are soon to be done away with as God promises at Revelation 21:4 and First Corinthians 15:26. May you continue to find strength and comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible. (John 17:17, John 8:32)###imported-begin###Valerie Johnson###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the Wallace family. To lose a loved one can take a toll on the family and those left behind. All of us can forward to time when death will be done away with permanently. We have Jehovah God's assurance. His inspired word at Rev 20:12 says "And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and scrolls were opened. But another scroll was opened; it is the scroll of life. And the dead were judged out of those things written in the scrolls according to their deeds."###imported-begin###K. Smith###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I will look to the hills from which cometh my help. May you look to God during this difficult times for his love never fails.###imported-begin###Pastor Joshua Harris###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Our condolences to you and your family. Keep your eyes on the sparrow. GOD will healed everything. Love Ricky!##imported-begin##Ricky Brooks & Family##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM