

Antonio Joseph Stokes

June 20, 1965 - June 14, 2014

On Saturday, June 14, 2014, God saw the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb, He gently touched his soul quietly whispering "Peace be thine".

ANTONIO JOSEPH STOKES (affectionately known as "Hot Dog" by family and friends) was born June 20, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Geneva Elizabeth and Leroy A. Brown.

Tony received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was baptized into the Catholic faith at Saint Francis Xavier Church.

Tony was employed with the Baltimore City Sanitation and with Guard Rail. He had numerous jobs and was an entrepreneur of many things.

Tony loved to play chess, eat crabs and listen to his music, especially the "The Whispers". He enjoyed having all this fun with: his sisters, Cynthia, Nonnie, Nina and sweetie, Jackie; Mr. James; family and friends and his two best friends, Tommy, Tank and the crew.

Tony was a big kid at heart. He loved the children, especially his granddaughters, Allera and Kylie. The kids could not wait until he came home from work to play with granddaddy, uncle Tony or Mr. Tony. They all loved him and his flashlight. Tony loved his flashlight and the kids did too.

He leaves to mourn: his soulmate of sixteen years, Jacqueline Laws; two daughters, Antonia Stokes and Shakia Stokes; two granddaughters, Allera and Kylie; sister, Cynthia Stokes; brother, Kevin Brown; five aunts, Rosalind, Marquerite, Brenda, Vonda and Karen; seven uncles, Dennis, Andrew, Calvin, Larry, Stevie, Gary and Clinton; niece, Tyrika Ricks; godson, Jamal Miller and two best friends, Tommy and Tank.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ To the Family of Antonio Joseph Stokes:
I wanted to write to give words of comfort after reading about the death of your loved one. The bible tells us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that 'the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing'. It also tells us at Isaiah 25:8 that 'God will swallow up death forever'. So we have the hope of seeing death done away with forever. God's purpose is for us to be happy. So we obey John 17:3. We take in knowledge of God and obey his word and we will get the undeserved reward of everlasting life. Well I hope the words have been of comfort to you, If you have any comments or questions please e-mail me or go to ww.jw.org.

My family and I wish to extend our heartfelt condolences to Tony Stokes family and loved ones. I will miss Tony's playfulness and laughter he shared with my entire family. I will also miss those late night phone calls we shared when he needed someone to talk to. I looked forward to his visits when he and my sister Jackie Laws would come out for cookouts, horseback riding, parties, "he loved to dance" eating crabs & shrimp and watching him play Chess with my neighbors. Tony was one of the few guys that lived his life meeting and welcoming new friends. I will miss it all.. I will cherish the memories of the man who affectionately called me sister-n-law... .
