

Antwon Lamont Witherspoon

January 6, 1981 - July 13, 2009

Antwon Lamont Witherspoon, also known to some as “Wu”, was born on January 6, 1981 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. Although he was only a tiny 1 pound 6 ounces, he came into this world kicking and screaming and he never stopped. He fought to get into this world and also to survive in it. His fight abruptly ended on July 13, 2009 when he went home to be with his heavenly Father. Antwon was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was pursuing further education and had dreams of becoming an entrepreneur one day. When describing Antwon, a few things immediately come to mind. Persistent, when he put his mind to something, he would not stop until it was achieved. Loyal he was always there for his family and friends and would do anything for them. A protector, he always gave you a feeling of safety and security. Caring although he had a rock hard exterior, he gave the biggest and tightest hugs. Antwon never hung up the phone without saying “I Love You” and he always had a smile on his face. He had a huge heart. Antwon will leave to cherish his memory; his loving mother, Edythe Witherspoon (father, the late Antwon Cooper, preceded him in death) sister, Tenille Cox; grandfather, James Witherspoon; grandparents, Agnes and Willie Mazyck; six aunts, Janice, Dretta, Mary Alice, Karen, Valorie and Darlene; six uncles, Antonio, Anthony, Daniel, Edward, Willie and Rodney; significant other, Meshawn Carter and soon to be daughter Arianna Camile Witherspoon; godfather, Anthony Venable; a host of great-aunts and uncles, cousins, friends and loved ones.

“ My dear sweet nephew Antwon, I am still trying to come to terms with your death. You will always be in my heart, thoughts and prayers for eternity. You never realize how much you love a person until they are gone. I love you and I miss you more and more each day. Isaiah 49:15 says, "I will not forget you. I have carved you on the palm of my hand." Your loving Aunt Jan##imported-begin##Janice Okunrinboye##imported-end##
