

April N. Campbell

January 23, 1974 - October 1, 2015

April "Nicole" Campbell, daughter of Reginald Campbell and Caroline Brown was born January 23, 1974 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the youngest of five siblings in which one preceded her death, Ronal Campbell. April better known as "Nicole" departed this existence on October 1, 2015.

Nicole, was educated the Baltimore City Public School System. As a child she enjoyed writing letters, poems, drawing pictures and spending time with her family. She was always happy and her smile was contagious. She loved listening to music and traveling outdoors. She would always be seen hanging out downtown at Lexington Market. She loved to eat sweets; donuts, cakes, cookies, sunflower seeds and ice cream. She also enjoyed eating ice; just as much as she enjoyed drinking her "Mikes Hard Lemonade!"

She was loving, caring, helping and had a heart of gold. She enjoyed life and always smiled and laughed. But, she made sure that her kindness would not be mistaken for weakness. No matter what challenge Nicole faced she was a soldier. She overcame many adversities in her life. but, most of all she loved her children.

Nicole leaves to cherish her memory: her loving daughters, Brittany, Tanya and Nicola. Three sons Martin, Messiah and Anthony. One grandson Khalil. One nephew Lamont Austin Jr. Her parents Caroline and Reggie, brothers

Lamont, David and Antonio; and a host of relatives and friends.
