“ Hi mommy this is your daughter Alexis I just want to say thank you for giving me a beautiful life. I will miss you dearly and I will carry you in my heart each and every day. I know that you are now in Gods kingdom gratefully getting your rest and watching over me. I remember you used to do my hair the night before school and I would give you a hard time because I hated getting my hair hot comb. I remember you got me a Wii game for Christmas and your favorite game was bowling and I had to keep tell you Ma your holding the remote wrong. You would just keep trying and tell me that it's broken we would just laugh. I will continue to grow and cherish every moment in time. To my Mom, April Womack, my role model and most of all my best friend and now to my angel I LOVE YOU FOREVER 🧡🦋

To my sister, April...to say that I am going to miss you is an understatement! There are far too many memories to recall at this time -- those of which brought laughter and tears, but I now know that you are resting, peacefully, with our family members whom you missed so very much, yet tried your best to not to show your true feelings -- kind of how I am feeling right now -- trying to be strong and poised and 'appearing' to be 'fine'...Take your rest, Monkey, you have earned it! I love you more than you will ever know and I hope I showed that to you! I will watch over Lex💛Lex but I cannot promise I won't spoil her! Guess what? I bet everyone wishes they had an APRIL in their family!! Take your rest, April! Although we I💛ve you, G💛D I💛ves best!

“ So Long April, Rest in Peace.

I extend my sincere sympathy to Alexis and the entire Womack family. I have known April since she was a small child on Dukeland Street. We played together as kids just about every day and we also stayed in trouble, all of the time, together. Then, life did what it always does. It gave us the space to grow apart, move in differing directions and have differing experiences. We would meet up at various points in time and we would always laugh about the crazy, mischievous things that we did as kids.

Taking my mother to Forrest Street to have April do our hair was one of my mother's greatest joys before passing. For my mother, I think it was less about hair, but more about checking in on that little girl named April who used to live up the street. She adored April and all of her childhood antics.

Rest in Peace April!

Now that you have your wings, you can spread them proudly and graciously knowing that your beautiful daughter will carry forward with the best parts of your legacy. You are and will forever be missed.
