

Archie Donald Foster

October 8, 1941 - January 31, 2022

“Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and Thy law is the truth”. ARCHIE D. FOSTER was born on October 8, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Vivian Foster-Green and Miles Otto Green. He departed this life on January 31, 2022 in Baltimore, Maryland. Archie was a believer in God and attended church as a young child. Archie was employed at BWI for 15 years before retiring. Archie was joined in holy matrimony to Emma Foster in Baltimore, MD who preceded him in death. Archie loved spending time with his family and giving family members his famous nicknames. He enjoyed going to shows and Jazz festivals. He enjoyed football, basketball and having laidback conversations with family. Archie was preceded in death by his two brothers, Charles T. Foster and Kenneth Foster; and his beloved granddaughter, Aundrea M. Cox. Archie leaves to cherish precious memories: his son, Anthony D. Cox; daughter-in-law, Marcia J. Cox; grandson, Larry Tate; brother, Joe Greene; sister-in-law, Virginia Foster; special niece and nephew, Shelly and Edward; niece and nephew Kendra, Keefe, Kevin and Sharon Foster; cousin, William Green; best friend, Richard Townes; and many more nieces and nephews.
