

Archie Reynolds

October 25, 1960 - November 22, 2009

ARCHIE S. REYNOLDS, beloved son of Edward J. (deceased) and Cecilia Reynolds, was born on October 25, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland. Archie departed this life suddenly on November 22, 2009. Archie received his education in the Baltimore City School System. Archie accepted Jesus as his savior at an early age and was baptized at the New Shiloh Baptist Church. Archie was in the security, surveillance, audio and video business, where he owned and operated his own company-ASR. Archie was the youngest of six children. He was outgoing and made friends wherever he went. Archie was loving, caring, supportive and a joker who would take a sad occasion and turn it into something joyful. He would keep a smile on your face and he always wore a smile. He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Cecilia Reynolds; three brothers, Edward Jr., Leon and Michael Reynolds and one sister, Judy Reynolds-Allen; and one sister, Terry Reynolds (deceased); nephews, nieces and a host of other relatives and friends, including one dear friend Rainer (Ray).

“ Hi Little Brother, was thinking about you and just wanted to drop a line and tell you that I still miss you so much. I noticed a for sale sign on the property. I don't know what is going on any more. I no longer care. I have to take care of my self right now. I know that is the way you would want it, they or he can have it all. But I am no longer angry with him, I just understand a lot more. I just wish he would not have left the family out the way he has. You would not have wanted it this way. Anyway, I look at your picture in my car every day before I leave for work and kiss it, it makes me feel better. I still miss you little brother. Mike and I talk all the time, we only wish we knew about your problem. I know I had no idea, so I went and blamed everyone else for what happen to you. I didn't know. Please forgive me !!! I know we will see each other again. Love you much Arch. Huges and Kisses Your Big Sister- Judy

To the Reynolds family I am so sorry for your lost. Archie was my best friend for over 42 years and today I am just learning of his pasting today April 28th 2012. I lost contact with Archie in 2009 not knowing that he was gone. I am the one that took the picture of Archie in the car. That was my car. Archie was the funnest guy I have every met. His pasting leaves me at a lost for words.

“ Arch missing you like crazy, I know you came and got mommy, she told me you and her were talking just before she died. This is just like you (LOL) now you, Cuttie, Terry and mommy are all together. I feel a bit left out but i will join you all hopefully many years from now. I know your so called friends have broke your heart but they will have to answer to God for what they did to you and I do pray that God will show them Mercy. I have forgave them it was not easy but with mommy's sickness and passing I didn't have time to focus on them just focused on taking good care of mommy you would have been proud of me. Didn't get any help from our brothers but mommy understood and said that it was ok, her and I were a team and she won the battle and is now in heaven with our heavenly father, her mother, her daughter and her son. I miss you guys so muh all I do is cry but I do know that joy will come in the morning, I will be glad when morning get here(LOL). I love you much Arch, kiss & hug mom for me.

“ *My Friend Archie We don't choose our Friends, They choose you. But you made everyone your Friend.I only knew you for a short time here on Earth but they where good Times to remember,Always.And those memories will not fade away. So let me tell you again that you where a true and loyal Friend,adviser and Guide for many here that send you now off on your final Journey.I only wish we could have gotten to know you better , as you have tried to solve and help with everybody's little hangups and problems foregoing your own pain and quiet suffering and loneliness just to help others. May the Lord carry you over the treshold into eternal Peace, away from this judgemental cruel and cold world Be at peace my Friend, and may we soon meet again. “ *The Death of a Soldier Look at him standing there Standing like a soldier Poor thing, he has no idea that his post is over. I hate to see him standing there Standing for no reason He’s been standing for so long Some say from season to season As I got closer to the soldier To try to tell him leave I notice all the metals he had pent upon his sleeve One said he stood buy his friend And endured the pain I guess that’s how he’s able To stand alone in freezing rain One said he made his friends so happy Whenever they were sad I guess that’s why he stands waiting Patiently for the friend he had One said he stood buy his friends side And was always there But I just couldn’t understand Why his friend would leave him there As long as he’s been standing It’s a wonder he’s alive But I knew that if he didn’t come inside The soldier would not survive After begging the soldier for hours To give up and just come in He slowly turned with tear in his eyes And said....not without my friend I love you! “ To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. This is a sorrow that God promises will one day be no more (Rev 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort you in all your tribulations." “ In Memaory of Archie S. Reynolds Often, in the Past; Archie had told others that I was A Priest of Peace,of Friendship,of Love. And I was deeply moved,sometime to Tears, Tears of laughter,or Tears of Wonder. For at Times I could’nt understand why. Until the Day of His Funeral and Memorial ,my Tears Returned towards my Insides to mingle whith those I had shed for other Loved ones. Ones’ shed for the passing of my Mother, Father,Step Mother, Step Father and Relatives; Aunts,Uncles, Cousins and of course Friends. All gone, taken from Me. I thought “too soon, too often,too many”. Until I remembered a written Note I had shared with Archie just a few Month in our past. Archie said to me how it moved Him to reflection and and tears and he would like IT said of Him, when he was”gone on” So doing this ,I honor our Friendship,Brotherhood and Love. Did not Jesus cammand “Love ye one Another as I have loved You” While I was walking and saying a silent Prayer His passing, I Imagined a conversation between Archie and our Lord It went something like this..... Archie was saying .” I sing because I’m Happy , I sing knowing Now I’m free, for His Eye is on the Sparrow. And I know He watches over me”. The voice of Good replied “I know of a Place where there’s nobody crying cause ain’t nobody dying. Come go with me”... ..I’ll take you there.” Archie replied “I’ve come to this Garden, alone. While the Dew is Still on the Roses And a Voice I hear, falling on my Ears.” The Son of God is calling..... And the Voice said “Come go with me , I’ll take you there. There’s no smiling, lying Faces. Lying to the Peoples of different races. Come, come with me I’ll take you there.....” To which Archie replied “He walks with me, and He talks with me And He tells me I am His Own. And the Joy we share while we tarry there, none other has ever known ‘..... And the Voice said”Come go with me, I’ll take you there. This Day, You will be with Me in Paradise I do believe this to have happened. What about what you have been thought to believe???????? Calvin N.Hill Jr. P.S. Jesus said to love one another, as you love yourself, as He loved us That settles it for me C.H.H Jr##imported-begin##Calvin##imported-end##

“ FOREVER CHANGED As people who have been blessed with the capacity to give and receive love, we are forever changed by the experience of grief in our lives. We, as human beings, do not 'get over' our grief but work to reconcile ourselves to living with it. We hope eventually to find some meaning for these sad happenings in our lives, to heal and to grow. Life is not fair. Life is a series of tragic losses but we cannot lose something unless we have first had it so the magnitude of each loss becomes the measure of life's gifts. Memories made in love can never be taken away from you. If your memories bring laughter, let yourself smile, if memories bring sadness, let yourself cry. If your faith is important to you, express it, and remember to love yourself. I wish you all love, peace and wellness.##imported-begin##RAY##imported-end##
