

Aritha Elizabeth Hewitt-Walker

January 2, 1932 - January 22, 2003

Aritha Elizabeth Hewitt Walker daughter of the late Eugene and Geneva Colbert was born on January 2, 1932 in South Boston, Virginia. She was called home on January 22, 2003 after a long illness. She attended South Boston, Virginia Public Schools. Once she relocated to Baltimore, Maryland with her family she enrolled and graduated from the City Hospital Nursing Program as a LPN (Licensed Practical Nurse). Aritha was married to the late Vernon Thomas Hewitt. She was the loving and devoted mother of the two daughters, the late Vernice Thomasina (Toni) and DeChristie Maria (Terri). Her family and friends as Rita and Granny affectionately knew her. Her kind heart is what she is best remembered for. Many things were made possible because of her unselfishness to make others loads a little easier. Her patience and understanding has truly been a blessing to her family and for that we know the road ahead will brighten and our loss will become easier to bear. Rita was proceeded in death by her oldest daughter Toni and her only grandson Derrand. She leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter, DeChristie Maria Warner (Terri); three granddaughters, Lady, Trellie and Tia; one sister, Jessie Scott of Marion, Ohio; eleven great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

“ Terri and family. I am hurting with you. Rita is family to me. I love her like a friend/mother. I'm glad I could be there for her at Levindale like she has been there for me. I take comfort knowing she's at peace. I'm so grateful I got to share in her last hours. I will never forget her or you. May God keep you in his bosom always.##imported-begin##Jacquetta Blanding##imported-end##
