May 15, 1925 - October 15, 2003

Arizona Hood Hunt Evans was born in Lancaster, South Carolina to the late Arialy and John Hood, on May 15, 1925. As a young child, Arizona was educated in Lancaster, until she left home as a young woman and moved to Baltimore. There, she met and married the late James Hunt and to this union were born six children, three of who preceded her in death: James Hunt, Andrew Hunt, and Denise Hunt. As a young woman, she reserved her place in eternal life by confessing her faith in Jesus Christ. Her favorite Bible verse was, "For I am now ready to be offered and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished the course, and I have kept the faith." II Timothy 4:6-7. In 1987, Arizona was joined in her second marriage to the late Wirron Evans. She loved the Lord and enjoyed going to church. She was a member of the New Life Evangelical Baptist Church. She retired from working at Spring Grove Hospital. Arizona was a people person; loved her family and was a devoted mother, grandmother, aunt, neighbor and friend. She leaves to cherish her precious memories, one daughter, Vanessa Lewis; two sons, Freddie Hunt and Michael Hunt; one sister, Dorothy Cureon; one son-in-law, Leon Lewis; one daughter-in-law, Lynne Hunt; ten grandchildren, Denita Green Larry Green, Tyrine Green, Patricia Lewis, Latisha Lewis, Michael Hunt, Neeme Hunt, Lamonte Hunt, James Hunt, and Jerode Hunt; eight great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends; three special ladies she called her daughters, Jean Allen, Lucille Boyd, and Ella Mae Anderson; special nephew, Robert

“ y condolences to the family. Our family finds much comfort in the Bible. One such passage is Job 14:14,15- "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning". So, God is yearning to bring back our loved ones to life. This he promises to do.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
