

Arlean E. Coppage

September 3, 1924 - July 14, 2007

On July 14, 2007, Arlean E. Coppage, born September 3, 1924 to the late Mose Evans and Viola Dale, was called to be with her heavenly Father. She accepted Christ at an early age while attending Lee's Chapel Church in Littleton, North Carolina. Arlean met and married James Otis Coppage, and out of this union six children were born, (James Otis Coppage Jr., Viola Williams, Ardean Durham and Dora Mae Brown all preceded her in death), Annie Coppage and Robert Coppage. She came to Baltimore, Maryland where she was employed at Bon Secours Hospital for twenty years, until her retirement. She leaves to cherish her memory; her daughter, Annie Coppage and son, Robert Coppage both of Baltimore, Maryland; eight grandchildren (one of whom preceded her in death); fourteen great-grandchildren, seven great-great grandchildren; foster mother and aunt, Lucille Dale; two sisters, Beulah Blackwell of Louisburg, North Carolina, Annie Smith of Capitol Heights, Maryland (Dorothy Martin of Washington, D.C. preceded her in death); one aunt, Beulah Jefferson of Castalia, North Carolina; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Ms. Coppage, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
