

Arleen Hymes-Burton

February 20, 1943 - October 25, 2014

Arleen Hymes, aka (Ollie) was born to Mary Lattimore and Booker Thomas Hymes on February 20, 1943 in Asheville, NC. She departed this life on October 25, 2014.

She graduated from Stephens Lee High School in Asheville and led the band all four years as the Head Majorette. She also completed one year of college at Winston Salem State University.

She moved to Atlantic City, NJ in the early 70's where she spent most of her life and made numerous friends and family who will miss her fun, outgoing spirit! She retired in 2008 from the Casino industry, and she also was a member of Union Baptist Church for these last several years.

She leaves behind three daughters: Wendy O'Briant (George), Serena Sams (Malcolm), Angelette Burton; and one son, Lemar Johnathan Burton; four grandchildren, Ebony, Kristi, Mecca, and Ky'ss; four siblings, Cleophia Locke (Reggie), Ruth Samuels, Robert Hymes (Alexis), and Thomasina Edwards (Jim); nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

She also took on a second family, the Burtons, in Atlantic City, with Johnny Burton, who preceded her in death in 1986. She greatly loved a host of daughters, sons, grandchildren who are too numerous to name. We want to acknowledge Angela Burton as a daughter and longtime best friend.
