

Arlene Morton

April 23, 1952 - June 12, 2007

Arlene Morton, the daughter of Ruth Johnson Redmond and the late James P. Redmond, Sr. was born on April 23, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on June 2, 2007 after a lengthy illness. Arlene, also known to most as “Leenie”, received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools, and further enhanced her education to receive a Bachelor of Arts, from Coppin State College in 1981. Her work experience varied, but was most noted for her outstanding achievements while employed at Ben Franklin, where she traveled around the country, as an Inventory Specialist to see that the company’s overall inventory was correct. Later, she moved her professional skills to Joseph H. Banks, as an Inventory Specialist in Management. Arlene had a genuine love for people, which made her well known. She worked and lived among people of various backgrounds in life, and was truly loved and looked out for by many. She leaves to mourn her son, Aaron O. Morton; mother, Ruth Johnson Redmond; one brother, James P. Redmond, Jr. two sisters, Vera Alford and Jean Redmond Lane; two brothers-in-law, Thurman Alford and Roland A. Lane Sr.; three aunts, Georgia Cox, Vashti Parrish, Mary Ross; three uncles, William Ross, Joel Ross, Daniel Ross, and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins and friends, with a special friend Gerald Morton, her ex-husband.

“ Mom. I love you with all of my heart. Although its been hard, Ive made my way through life just fine just like you asked of me. I've done my best to do right by others and ignore the evil done onto me even by those closest to me. You now have 5 beautiful grandchildren Kamia 30, Charlene 13, Daniel (adopted) 7, Cameron 5 and Chloe 8 months. I am doing my best to take care of them the best i can. Just like you did for me. I try my best only to remember the good times and I stay close to Aunt Vera. Grandmother, Lil and George are all with you now in heaven. I ask that you now look over the kids and my family here. I will see you one day soon. Love you always. Your only son. Aaron.

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the \\\"God of all comfort\\\" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, \\\"Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people.\\\"###imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
