“ My condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. May you receive comfort from these loving promises found in the Holy Bible- John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." And 1 Corinthians 15:26- "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing."##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest condolences to the family. This has to be a very hard thing to lose a loved one so young and had a long life ahead of him. But the Bible is a good thing to read to help us cope with these trying situations. One scripture of comfort is at Revelation 21:3,4. It tells us that in due time God will wipe the tears from our eyes and sicknesses and death will be done away with. My best wishes goes out to the family.##imported-begin##Kelvin Green##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
