“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family . May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He not only assures a resurrection for our loved ones on a restored Paradise Earth but in 1 Corinthians 15:26 He even promises that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ To the Easley Family, you have my deepest sympathy in the loss of your dear loved one. When we lose those close to us, we tend to ask the question "why" and we may wonder if we will see our loved one again. God's Word the Bible tells us that we will see our loved ones at Acts 24:15. Won't it be wonderful to see Armistead alive again! In addition, we can look forward to a time when death will be no more (Rev. 21:3, 4). This is a future promise from Almighty God. In the meantime, may you find comfort from your friends, family and the memories you shared. Again, you have my deepest sympathy.

My deepest sympathy goes out to Armistead Easley's family during this difficult time of your loss. He was a former SDDC co-worker who became a good friend as well. He was a member of the SDDC family. After his leaving Ft Eustis, we stayed in contact over the years and I will truly miss him from the bottom of my heart. Arned Powell
