

Armond W. Hoard

October 28, 1936 - June 21, 2014

Armond W. Hoard, son of the late Catherine Laws and William Armond Hoard, was born October 28, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on June 21, 2014. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Armond accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior at a young age and enjoyed singing on the church choir. He was employed at Forest Park Cleaners, Allied Chemicals, Clean Harbors, and he retired from Uplands Apartments. After retirement, he spent his time landscaping his neighborhood and was always willing to give a helping hand. He married the love of his life Betty Jean Davis and out of that union two children were born, Valerie and Rolanda. Armond enjoyed spending time with family and friends. The self-proclaimed "Brown Bunny" was known for giving the best parties where everyone was always welcome. Armond said what he meant and meant what he said. He was outspoken, genuine, and hilarious, always making people laugh with his witty humor. He loved tropical fish, an ice cold beverage, and HOME DEPOT, where he went every chance he got. Armond made numerous friends wherever he went and was a devoted family man. He will be sincerely missed by all. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Betty Jean Hoard; two daughters, Valerie Spencer and Rolanda Hoard; brother, William Hoard (Margaret); brother-in-law, Vernon Mixon; four sisters-in-law, Shirley Parker, Pastor Phyllis Burgess, Mary Jolley (William) and Theresa Pindell; two grandsons, Michael and Mario Finley; three great-grandchildren, Mazira, Mario Jr. and Nyele; a special fatherly bond with niece, Renea Gaskins; many other nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
