

Armrow Foster

March 24, 1913 - February 10, 2002

Armrow G. Foster, son of the late Sanston M. Foster and Lair Ennals, was born on March 24, 1913 in Crapo, Maryland. He departed this life on February 10, 2002 after a short illness. He was educated at the North Point School. At a young age, he became a member of John Wesley Methodist Church in North Point, Maryland. As a teenager, he worked as a truck driver, transporting produce to various markets in Baltimore City. At a later age, he became employed at Bethlehem Steel in Sparrows Point, Maryland. He was employed at Bethlehem Steel until his retirement in 1974. He married the former Mary Ellen Seth on August 4, 1936. They lived a very happy and fulfilling life until her passing on August 20, 1982. Armrow made numerous friends wherever he went. He was always there to lend a helping hand to those in need. He enjoyed telling stories of his youth and how God almighty had helped him every step of the way. Everyone who knew him will sincerely miss him. There could never be a friend more loyal. He leaves to mourn: a sister, Kathleen Harris; two brothers, Bennie Foster and Sanston Foster, Jr.; nieces, nephew and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
