

Arnetta Hall

July 18, 1948 - November 25, 2017

Arnetta Audrey "Niecey" Hall was born on July 18, 1946 to Mildred and William Fortune Sr. in Baltimore, Maryland. Niecey, as her family and friends called her, was a vivacious, intelligent, and compassionate woman who gave generously to those she loved. She received her education through the Baltimore City Public School system. She graduated from Fredrick Douglass High School. She went on to marry John Hall Sr. and together they produced one son John Hall Fr. In 2004, she adopted her son Quinn Hall and continued to be a Mother figure to many of her nieces and nephews. Niecey, maintained a lengthy career of Bank of America and then as an Insurance Specialist at Aegon Insurance Company for many years until health complications caused her to retire. Her heroic personality wouldn't allow her health to stop her from doing the things she wanted to do. She was infamously known for saying, "If I don't do it...it won't get done!"

Arnetta enjoyed the finer things in life. She believed that with hard work, consistency, and proper tools anything was possible. She instilled that motto in every child she help raise. Niecey, lived her life fearlessly. She loved with passion and assertiveness. She open her heart and her home to many in the hopes that her gestures of good faith would leave a marking of love on that individual's life. She was very non-judgmental and easy to talk too. Her responses were always filled with wittiness and blunt advice. She was loyal and completely committed herself to every cause and person who was near and dear to her heart. She will deeply and sorely missed by all those who loved her.

She was preceded in death by both her Parent William and Mildred Fortune Sr.,(one brother) Nathaniel Johnson and (one sister) Harriet Fortune. She leaves to mourn (two son) John Hall Fr. and Quinn Hall, (one daughter-in-law) Erica Hall, (one granddaughter) Charday Hall, (two grandsons) Jawan Hall, (two sisters) Norma Fortune and Emily Graves, two brother William Fortune Sr. and Raymond Fortune, and a host of nieced, nephews, cousin, and friends.
