

Arno L. West

March 3, 1961 - May 10, 2019

On May 10, 2019, ARNO LAMONTE' WEST, loving son of Arno Luther West and Mary Glover West, suddenly passed away at the age of 58.

Lamonte was born on March 3, 1961 in Washington, DC to Mary and Luther West. As a youth, he was always joyful and adventurous. Lamonte grew up with his brothers Ronald (Chico), Maury and had a very close relationship with his cousins Kevin, Brian (deceased), Lance and Kecia.

Lamonte's passion as a young man was playing with toy soldiers and battleships. As a teenager, Lamonte learned to play the guitar and would harmonize with his mother. He had a beautiful voice. Lamonte was a great cook. He would experiment with recipes and constantly called his Aunt Penny for instructions on how to prepare the meal.

Lamont had a warm and loving relationship with his grandmothers, Willie Glover (deceased) and Vernice West (deceased). He loved being around family and friends. He was known for his quick wit, his infectious smile, and his kind and compassionate spirit.

After graduating High School, he joined the United States Army and was assigned to the base camp at Ft. Stewart in Liberty, GA. After his service, Lamonte returned home to work various jobs, including the United States

Postal Service and working for his father service as a caregiver for seniors at an assisted living facility.

Lamonte will be missed! He is survived by his parents, Mary and Luther West; his brothers, Maury and Ronald; and several cousins, aunts, uncles and friends.
