

Arnold Gladstone Morrison

October 15, 1916 - May 13, 2005

Quietly on May 13, 2005, Mr. Arnold Gladstone Morrison fearlessly answered the summons of the Master. He was born in Manchester, Jamaica on October 15, 1916. He was reared by his grandmother, Elizabeth Clark and received his education in his native country. He joined the Army after school and successfully completed his tour of duty. In 1942 he signed onto a workman's boat bound for the United States. He humbly worked for a time in a mushroom field but through his diligence soon worked himself up to a job as a truck driver. He was employed by Stebbins Anderson which was later named Saco Supply Company. He was married to the former Lessie M. Stevenson until her death in 2000. Though he was fiercely proud of his Jamaican heritage, in 1957 he applied for and earned United States citizenship. Mr. Morrison was a good neighbor and friend, who was welcomed by many as a member of the family. He adopted many neighborhood children and was loved, adored and respected throughout the community. His dignity and pride caused everyone he met to call him "Mister Morrison." Even at his advanced age he was known to quote his favorite scripture, the 91st Psalm, in its entirety, by heart and from his heart. Mr. Morrison leaves to mourn some special friends, Elaine Huston, Mildred Baker, Mary Mitchell, the Griffin Family, the neighborhood children and numerous others.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
