

Arnold M. Eppes

December 8, 1959 - April 23, 2010

A Time To Be Born ARNOLD M. EPPES was born to Leon Moore and Ethel Pinkard on December 8, 1959 in Virginia. A Time To Learn Arnold attended Camden Senior High School and received his education in the New Jersey Public School System. A Time To Love Arnold always loved God and gave his life to Him at a young age. Later on, Arnold met the love of his life in the year 2004. After dating for a number of years, they decided to unite in holy matrimony on September 19, 2009. He remained devoted until the time of his death. A Time To Labor and Laugh Arnold was a committed employee at a Danville, Virginia refrigeration company over some years. From then on he was a multi-tasker/home-improvement worker until his death. He enjoyed visiting his grandmother, who lived in Crewe, Virginia and being around the elderly. Arnold loved joking. When you would ask him what his name was, he would say, "Arnold McKinley Eppes, but they call me Boo-Chie." He loved gospel music, traveling, playing pool and learning the word of God. Arnold loved his mother and he took care of her. A Time For Peace After fighting the good fight of faith, on Friday, April 23, 2010 Arnold submitted himself to God who saw fit to reach down and transform him from this earthly realm to the greatest realm of victory which is in heaven. His memory will be cherished by: his wife, Tondlea Brown-Eppes; three stepsons, Man, Jarbar and Talo; stepdaughter, Tee-Tee; nine grandchildren, mother, Ethel Pinkard; his father, Leon Moore; brother, Tyrone Eppes Sr.; two daughters-in-law, Renee and Cheree; four sisters-in-law, five brothers-in-law; niece, Tynneesha; nephew, Tyrone Eppes, Jr.; a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and dear friends. Including special loved ones in his life Alfredia Moore, Lona Carter b.k.a. "Nana," and a Seonda (who was like a sister-in-law).

Tribute Wall

“ Arnold M. Eppes

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the resurrection hope. Jesus demonstrated this with his friend Lazarus at John 11:38-44. May these words bring you comfort at this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM