

Arnold Westly Morton

October 18, 1958 - July 13, 2011

ARNOLD WESTLY MORTON, born October 18, 1958, in Baltimore, MD. He was the middle child to Maggie and Rawleigh Morton.

Arnold attended Frederick Douglass High School where he received his diploma in June 1976. shortly after that he enlisted in the Marine Corp where he served his country from 1976 until 1979. Arnold was honorably discharged as Corporal. He stayed in Hawaii after his tour in service and worked as a civilian with the Department of Defense. After a while, he became homesick and decided to come back home and be with his family.

He worked at the Maryland Cup Company for many years and later worked at Pimlico Race Track.

His hobbies were looking at movies, watching sports and playing chess. He had a passion for people and always wanted to entertain in his home.

He had so much compassion for his dog, Nikkie. She would always stay close to him whenever he was around. Sometimes she would lay in bed with him. If anything was wrong with Arnold she would let the family know by her bark. In Arnold's case, the saying id true, that a man's best friend is his dog.

Arnold departed this life at the new Haven Convalescent Home after a short stay. He leaves his mother, Maggie Morton; father, Rawleigh Morton; brother, Derrick Morton; sister, Rawlene (Honey) Williams; 3 nephews; Corey and Terrace Williams and Dwight Morton; 5 uncles, 3 aunts; Goddaughter ChaDae Grant and a host of cousins and friends.
