December 25, 1929 - February 8, 2009

ARTENTIOUS D. PILGRIM, daughter of the late John Grice and Dicey Belon, was born on December 25, 1929 in Marion South Carolina. She departed this life on February 8, 2009 after a lengthy illness. Artie received her education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore. She was eventually employed by the Social Security Administration for thirty-five-years. Besides her many years of government service, she also had many outside activities throughout her life. She had a love for bowling, which she played with family and friends. Artie also had a true talent for sewing, quilting, knitting, and gardening, for which she earned the nickname "Menda". She married Christopher Pilgrim, who left this earth before her; and out of this union they adopted a beautiful daughter, Teresa. After retirement, she traveled to many beautiful places around the United States. She really enjoyed her frequent trips to Atlantic City with family and friends. Artie is left to mourn: her daughter, Teresa V. Smith; two grandchildren, Tynaya C. Smith and Christopher W. Miller; as well as a host of other relatives and friends. Artie will be sincerely missed by all who knew and loved her

“ May you be comforted by the hope of the resurrection. God has promises that soon the dead will be raised back to life on a paradise earth that he is creating. One day all the hurt and sorrow of this life will be a thing of the past, because the dead will hear the voice of the son of God, and they will come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29 May you find comfort in this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
