“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for you and your family, for I too know the pain of losing a loved one. I would like to share with you a thought from God's word the Bible, as I am sure that it will bring you as much comfort as it has me. At John chapter 5, verses 28,29 Jesus himself said that all those in the memorial tombs would, "hear his voice and come out." Yes, the Christ promises us that we can see our dead loved ones again by means of the resurrection. I believe him, and I am sure that you do too! Feel free to contact me at the above address. Again, I am truly sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ Sonny, You are my Arian brother and I will miss you and your nurturing spirit tremendously. We jokingly cursed and berated one another whenever we spoke, but we both knew this was how we expressed our great affection for one another. I am truly thankful for your telephone call the week before you left us—you didn't joke with me only wished me a safe trip to Cancun—which was unusual for you. Had I known that this particular conversation would be our last, it would not have ended without you knowing how blessed I feel to have had you in my life. You will always have a special place in my heart and your spirit will be with me forever. Love,

“ My beloved cousin, who was also my big brother and father at times. The years have flown bye since I was a young girl always requesting to hang out with you. You have been my staunch supporter throughout my life. Always there whenever I needed you; in good, bad or indifferent times. It will be hard not to be able to pick up a phone to talk to you, or run across the beltway to see you. I always knew every intricate detail of your life - like you knew mine. And you never hesitated to tell me if you thought I was wrong/nor stand up for me in a heart beat to defend me when I was right. You were my rock, and held me up until I was strong enough to stand on my own. With each new day I will miss you just like the passing one. I love you Cuz, and rest well in peace until I see you again and know that you were loved - not just by me and other family members, but by a host of friends as well.###imported-begin##Jacqueline Bass###imported-end##
