Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me;
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room, why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not long and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the things that we once shared-miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take, and each must go alone;
It's all a part of the master's plan, a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to friends we know;
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,

Miss Me-But Let Me Go!
