

Arthur Junior Dawkins Sr.

August 28, 1939 - March 28, 2013

ARTHUR J. DAWKINS SR., seventy-three, was born on August 28, 1939 in Pacolet, South Carolina to the late Mrs. Minnie Lee Dawkins. He departed this life suddenly after a brief battle with cancer.

He received his early education in the South Carolina School System. As an early teenager he moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Arthur joined the United States Army and received an honorable discharge; returning with many great stories of his tours across Europe. He then became a Baltimore City Policeman. All the while he always had a true love, "cars!" Owing several shops and servicing thousands throughout the city, this master mechanic later became foreman for Baltimore City Fleet Maintenance from which he retired after over thirty years.

Arthur was better known to most as "Slugger" for being quite the lady's man and a true tough guy.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Althea Dawkins; and brothers, Earl and Lewis Dawkins.

He leaves memories with: his wife, Catherine Dawkins; sons, Andre, Damien, Wayne, Jason, Erick, Derek, plus more; daughters, Doris, Donna, Raynette, Monet, Diana, Tonya and Karen; sister, Mary carter; over twenty-five grandchildren, over thirty great-grandchildren; aunt, Annie Ruth Smith; sister-in-law, Virginia; six nieces, two nephews; a special friend, Keesha; and a host of other relatives and friends.
