“ Today makes 2 years that Arthur departed this life and he is truly missed by his family but my knowing that this life is not all there is and that in the. New World Translation Holy Scriptures at Revelation 24:15 it says that there is going to be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous this makes my heart glad so to the sisters, stepchildren, grandchildren nieces, nephews, aunts uncles just remember the love he had for us and the continued love that we have for him. “ It is with exstream love and indepth pain that i say goodbye to one of the greatest men i have ever known. Never will there be such a small build man that walked so tall and had such a big heart as my love, my heart, my life Arthur F. Feaster did. May you find a painless peaceful kindom where theres nothing but love, old friends, and family to surround you. It is so hard to carryon without you, but I know that you'll be watching over all of us. Grilled Cheese {our way of expressing deeply-i love u} my soulmate.

until we meet again,
forever & always,

“ To the family of Arthur F. Feaster:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). To find the Bible's satisfying answers to many other questions, please go to the website jw.org.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

*TO MY HOMIE AND FRIEND We shared a life time of memories together; it was just a few of us.....You know who!?! Ripping and running the streets together is what we like to do. You were about Yours and I was about Mines..... But, You knew like I knew....We were each others Lifeline! The friendship we shared has and would last a life time..... There was nothing You wouldn't do for Me ; or I wouldn't do for You! Just thinking back..... Things were wild when it was me and you against the world..... A million words wouldn't bring You back, I know I tried....Neither would a million tears, I know, because I cried..... With that being said: Rest in Peace my Homie my Brother my Friend!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Until we walk those miles again, I remind in death as in life Your best Friend..... Ronnie M.
