

Arthur D. Frost

April 15, 1963 - January 15, 2012

ARTHUR DELANO FROST, who was affectionately known as (Tuffy) was born on April 15, 1963 to Mildred Frost Hughes and the late Arthur L. Haywood. God saw the road getting rough for one of his children and on January 15, 2012, he sent an Angel from heaven to quiet escort him home.

Tuffy grew up in Sandtown on Stricker Street with hi mother, Mildred and late grandparents Louise and Henry Frost, his two brothers James and Kevin, and his sister Tracie. The late Grady Hughes and James Dunton, Sr. also important people in his life. As a young man, Tuffy became a member of The New Bethlehem Baptist Church where he gave his life to Christ.

Tuffy received his education in Baltimore City Public School System where he attended The Baltimore School of Arts and graduated from Frederick Douglass High School. He was an outstanding artist who often used his artistic talents to help children with their school projects. After graduation, Tuffy had a variety of jobs. He worked for several security companies and became self-employed as a computer technician and music entertainer. Oftentimes, you could find Tuffy doing what he loved, coordinating music for events with family and friends.

In early 1980's, Tuffy met Michelle Duvall, and they later had two children, Damion and Diandre. He shared his life with them until God called him home.

Tuffy, who was very friendly and affectionate made friends very easily. He is loved and will be greatly missed. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Mildred Frost Hughes; his true love, Michelle Duvall; his two sons, Damion and Diandre Frost; his siblings, James, Tracie, Kevin, Derrick, Venus and Trina; one sister-in-law, Cherice Lyles-Dunton; two aunts, Carolyn Dunton and Angeanette Conaway; one uncle, Robert Earl Jones; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, family and friends.

*Michelle...this is KC. I literally just found out tonight (November 22,2020) that Tuffy passed away! My heart hurts so bad to receive this news. I know that it has been almost 9 years, but if you need anything, I am here.
I hope that you and the boys (grown men now) are doing well.*

Kevin Cleveland - November 22, 2020 at 10:20 PM

Yes I'm still telling some of his friends that I run into. We're doing good thank God. Now we're getting ready to bury his last aunt on his mother's side of the family. Her funeral is this Saturday.

“ *Oh, please don't feel guilty
It was just my time to go.
I see you are still feeling sad,
And the tears just seem to flow.
We all come to earth for our lifetime,
And for some it's not many years
I don't want you to keep crying
You are shedding so many tears.
I haven't really left you
Even though it may seem so.
I have just gone to my heavenly home,
And I'm closer to you than you know.
Just believe that when you say
my name, I'm standing next to you,
I know you long to see me,
But there's nothing I can do.
But I'll still send you messages
And hope you understand,*

“ In memory of my cousin affectionately known as Tuffy. He had a glowing smile, a big heart, and a personality you could never forget. I will remember all of our many laughs and good times together. His spirit has touched many lives with found memories and love that will stay in our hearts. I know Tuffy is gone, but he will never be forgotten. God's door has open and Tuffy have passed through. It's hard for me to say goodbye, but I know Tuffy will be watching over us all. Love always Nue-Nue.

“ One of the very few true friend I ever had. I remember when I met Tuffy, he was standing in the door and asking me what was I looking at. He was always quick witted and fun to be around, we would sit for hours just talking.

Tuffy taught me how to build a computer from the base up and we would just talk about every and anything, he was my superman big brother and he will always be my superman. You will be missed. Love you Michelle, Damion, and Deandre!

“ Trusting in Jehovah's promises will give you comfort for your sorrow and peace to fill your heart. My condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one.2 Cor. 1:3,4)

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ He was a great individual. Very open, honest and relatable. I remember him coming down in the basement with me and damion on Gist Ave and just converse. Fun times. Or him mixing on his turntables. First and only to mix club and gospel. Cooking the pasta shells. He genuinely care and took interest in your life and thats rare especially with parents of friends. May he rest in peace. Much love from Stan Po

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. When a loved one dies the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such a time we can find comfort in Jesus promise made to all who have loss loved one in death at John 5:28,29 which reads: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
