

Arthur C. Grigsby

October 31, 1933 - April 22, 2016

Mr. Arthur Clarence Grigsby, Sr., son of the late Henry Grigsby and Tommie Lenoir Grigsby, departed this life on Friday, April 22, 2016 in Baltimore, MD.

Arthur was preceded in death to his wife of thirty-five years, Mable Copeland. His marriage to the late Elizabeth Grigsby resulted in the birth of four children: Beverly Grigsby, Arthur Grigsby, Jr., Joseph Grigsby, and Myra Grigsby (deceased). His stepchildren with the late Elizabeth Grigsby are Richard Smith, Marvin Smith, Mary Smith, Ann Darden, and James Johnson and two stepsons who preceded him in death, Leroy and George Smith.

Arthur received his education at St. Mary Catholic School and Evanston Township High School in Illinois. After leaving Evanston, Illinois, Arthur served in the U.S. Army before settling in Baltimore, MD. He worked forty years as a sergeant for the Baltimore Jail System until his retirement in 1998. After retirement, he volunteered full time at Roberta's House as a grievance counselor.

Arthur leaves to cherish his memory: sister, Henrietta Johnson; children, grandchildren, great-great grandchildren and many friends. He is also survived by his stepchildren: Angela Ross, William Copeland Jr., and Manley Douglas Copeland, Sr. His departure is also mourned by his long time companion, Barbara Johnson.
