“ I am really sorry that you lost your loved one in death. Please accept my condolences. The loss of a loved one is the most hurtful thing we endure in this life, something that God never purposed for people. Jehovah is a kind, loving father who desires happiness for his earthly children, not the pain of sickness and death. That is why he sacrificed his beloved so Jesus, so that we could once again have an opportunity for everlasting life in paradise. At John 10:10 Jesus said that this was the reason he came to the earth and gave his life. "So that they might have life and have it in abundance. According to 1st Cor. 15:26, soon our enemy death will be done away with. Then Acts 24:15 tells us that there will be a resurrection. For now, reflect on your precious memories until that joyous day arrives when we will see our loved ones again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, "Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart," says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. At times like these it may seem that there is no source of comfort. No source of relief from your sorrow. I have been able to find comfort in God's Word, The Bible. I have found comfort from the wonderful hope expressed at Acts 24:15 and the promise made at John 5:28,29. May these serve as a source of comfort for you also.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I send my condolences to the family on your loss. It is hard to lose a person that we love so much. But the Bible gives a reason for hope. Acts 24:15 tells us we can "have hope toward God...that there is going to be a resurrection". I hope that you can find comfort from the Bible.##imported-begin##Kendra Adams##imported-end##
