

Arthur Lee Lemon Sr.

April 21, 1956 - November 24, 2022

ARTHUR L. LEMON SR., also known as “Popcorn,” was born on April 21, 1956 in Sumter, South Carolina. He was the oldest son of Levander Lemon and Ruffie Mae Lemon who precedes him in death. He departed this life on Thanksgiving Day, November 24, 2022.

Popcorn was raised in Baltimore, Maryland. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and attended Edmondson Westside High School. He began working at an early age helping his dad build homes and churches. He continued his employment with P. Flanigan and Sons, Inc. and performed various tasks within the Construction Division for 35 years until his retirement.

Popcorn was family oriented. When he was not working, he was with his family. He had four kids, but he helped to raise his nieces and nephews as his own. He was very generous and loved to put a smile on other people faces. He loved taking trips to South Carolina to visit family, he enjoyed playing his good ole’ Classic Soul, R&B Soul, and “The Blues” music. Popcorn was artistic, he could draw, and in the mid 90’s he built a large mobile radio system that has an amazing sound. He also repaired cars and could build one if he tried, he was just a very crafty and talented man. When we had family gatherings everyone looked forward to seeing Popcorn, and he always came bearing gifts. He will truly be missed.

Popcorn leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Sandy; daughters, Cheryl and (son-in-law) Desi, Jackie, and Leanna and (son-in-law) Sani; grandchildren, Jade, Lauren, MacKenzie, Summer and August; his siblings, Hazel, Sandy, Will, Lisa, Ligi, Sylvester, Anthony, Munchie, and Lee Lee; and host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends. His son Arthur L. Lemon Jr. and his brother Simon preceded him in death.
