

Arthur Lewis

March 21, 1920 - September 8, 2010

ARTHUR LEWIS,(LOU), son of the late John and Nannie Burk Lewis was born on March 21,1920 after a brief illness at Sinai Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Six sisters and brothers preceded him in death.

Arthur received his education in Harrisonburg, Virginia. He served in the in the United States Army and was presented with the Medal of Honor. He was united in holy matrimony to Mabel Reid Bridgeforth on May 5, 1941 and from this union two children were born, Arthur and Yvonne. Because of his love for children he served as a foster parent for nineteen years. She preceded him in death in May of 1985 after forty-five years of marriage and a fruitful union. He wed again in 1988 to Ella walker of Baltimore, Maryland which ended in divorce in 1992.

Arthur worked as a letter carrier for the United States Postal Service; he retired after thirty-two years of outstanding service. He loved to bowl with the Colt 10 and the Bill Brown Singer. Among his other hobbies, Arthur also enjoyed surf fishing and watching football with co-workers. As a member of the "US Camping Club" he and his family traveled throughout the United States and Canada in their motor home.

“ I remember the summer trips and Arthur telling the impatient people in the car behind who wanted to pass him to "come on over the top". RIP.
