

Arthur Stepney

January 10, 1939 - March 3, 2008

Arthur Stepney, Jr. was called to rest on Tuesday, March 25, 2008. at the age of 69. "Art" as he was affectionately called by family and friends, was the second child born to Arthur and Ruby Stepney on January 10, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was a fun-loving person who enjoyed cooking, music, Christian plays, and family gatherings. His early education was Dunbar Middle and Dunbar High where he graduated in 1956. At the tender age of 17, Arthur served his country by joining the Marine Corps. After three years of service, and six years of active reserve duty, he was honorably discharged and began work as a commercial truck driver. After several years of short and long distance driving, he found his calling as a case manager for the Department of Social Services where he retired in 2001. His years of service and commitment to helping people were noted by a citation from the Mayor's office and Maryland Transportation Authority. He leaves to mourn: two sons, Arthur III and Didorious (Harriet Buck); a devoted daughter, Lesley, whom he affectionately called "Winky" (Anne Stepney); two granddaughters, Martina and Aaliyah; three grandsons, Darius, Arthur Ryan IV, Alexander Jacob; one great grandson, Byron Joshua Dagold; his loving and faithful companion Mildred Meeks; one sister, Shirley Ford; five brothers, Robert (predeceased), Leonard (Rene), Bernard (Verline), Teddy, Richard; and a host of cousins, nieces, grand-nieces, nephews, grand-nephews and friends.
