

Arthur Wadley

May 9, 1936 - June 19, 2009

Arthur Wadley, Sr., son of Gertrude E. Wadley and the late Patrick Williams, was born on May 9, 1936 in Richmond, Virginia. He was preceded in death by his son, Wayne Peyton; brother, Gordon Wadley; and sisters, Esther McCall, Rachel Dillard and Shirley Wadley. Arthur was educated in the Richmond Public School System. He was a dedicated worker on any job he undertook. He loved to cook and demonstrated those skills while working at the Silver Coach. Arthur worked for many years at Galeski's Fox Photo and Central Fidelity Bank. Allowing Christ to direct his life, he was led to join the Moore Street Baptist Church and later united with the Thirty-first Street Baptist Church where he was an active member until his health began to waiver. He was a past member of the Male Chorus and the 31st Street Bowling League. Arthur was also a member of the Goodwill Missionary Circle. He had a love for photography and took many memorable pictures of church activities as well as weddings, family reunions, and other occasions. Arthur loved talking to people whether he knew them or not. He had a love for fishing, bowling and riding motorcycles. He was a part of a Breakfast Club that met daily at McDonald's on Midlothian Turnpike. They discussed everything from the streets, to religion, to politics and he truly enjoyed being a part of that comradeship. He leaves to cherish his memory a loving and devoted wife, Linda Brunson-Wadley; three daughters, Gertrude (Winfred) Ridley, Lynette and Zelma Wadley; four sons, Arthur Jr. (Wanda), Nicholas, Dominick, and Justin Wadley; nine grandchildren, Calvin, Nedra, and Cierra Peyton, Porsha

Waddey, Joi Ridley, Otis, JaVante, Leighsa, and Ezra Waddey; three great-grandchildren, Clavin Jr. and Nia Peyton and Nyeem Peyton-Trapp; mother, Gertrude E. Waddey; sister, Mary "Pete" Harris; father and mother-in-law, Andalo and Shirley Brunson, Sr.; two sisters-in-law, Phyllis Brunson and JoAnn Grandison; one brother-in-law, Andalo Brunson, Jr.; God-daughter, Sharon Williams; two devoted friends, Gregory Harris and Pedro Figueroa; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Dear Waddey Family: I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I noticed that Mr. Waddy was from Richmond, VA. I, too, have family from that area. It must be something true to the fact of the southern charm shown by those from the south. Your love for him was described in your words. The bible also tells us how much Jehovah God cares and love us. for he says at*** (Isaiah 25:8) He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken [it]. May you find comfort in his promise.##imported-begin##L. Townsend##imported-end##

“ I send my warm and heartfelt condolences to the Waddey family. May the God of all comfort be with you always to help you to cope with your loss. Losing a loved one is truly devastating. I know, because I too have lost many loved ones in death. The scriptures point out that Jehovah God has much better things in store for us, and he promises that one day there will be no more people crying, no more violence, no more world hunger or homelessness, no more sickness, and best of all, no more death. Rev 21:4 promises that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. Act 24:15 tells us that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Isaiah 65:17 lets us know that even the memory of these tragic things we go through will be erased. What wonderful things Jehovah and Jesus have in store for those who love them, I'm sure you'll agree. As you reflect on these scriptures keep in mind that Jehovah never fails to fulfill his promises, and one day things will be right on this earth again just like they were from the beginning. Joshua 23:14, Isaiah 55:11. May your cherished memories, which death cannot erase, be a source of comfort to you in the days ahead until God's wonderful promises come to pass.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. May you find comfort now and in the days to come, not only from your precious memories, but also from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." “ I would like to express my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
