“ I'm so very sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. Losing a loved one is so hard to come to terms with, but we have a loving heavenly father who has something much better in store for us. When his kingdom comes, as we pray for in the Lord's prayer, then all things will be different here on the earth, because God's will will be done on this earth, just as it is in heaven. The earth will then be a paradise where such things as sickness, wars, crime, hunger, old-age, and even death will be a thing of the past. The memory of the pain we experienced in this life will even be forgotten, because Isaiah 65:17 says of Jehovah, "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind; neither will they come up into the heart." Isaiah 33:24, and Isaiah 25:8 tells us that noone will say, "I am sick", and also death itself will be swallowed up forever." At that time the graves will be emptied, and all those asleep in the dust will wake up. Daniel 12:2. What a wonderful thing to look forward to. May you be comforted by our God's loving, wonderful promises.##imported-begin##RJohnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that very soon our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that 'all those in the memorial tombs' will hear the voice of His son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29) What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson###imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.###imported-begin##C. Murphy###imported-end##
