“ I will miss this giant of a man in our family. When I saw him at his sister Velma's birthday party, I could not realize that would be our last earthly encounter. Rest in Perfect Peace Cousin Nolan.

“ Uncle Nolan was always smiling and upbeat whenever I visited. Also affectionately called “uncle No No” by my younger cousins, his sense of humor and love for his family will be deeply missed. Rest in paradise 💕💕

“ Uncle Nolan helped me find and upgrade my first car. It was an old police car, Chevy Biscayne. I needed some sounds, and he installed a new cassette player, so I was surrounded by sound. Do you know what a car meant? It meant employment, and availability of work. Work to help me get through college. Thanks uncle Nolan. When my aunt, his wife got sick, I asked him his plan. He got my aunt in a care facility, fast as lighting. He handled the transition with business alacrity, and made all of the technical arrangements for both of them. Uncle Nolan, rest in peace.
