

Arthur G. Young

October 2, 1946 - October 17, 2010

ARTHUR GARY YOUNG, son of Lucine and the late Donald K. Young, was born on October 2, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the fourth of seven children.

Arthur was a playful student when he attended the Baltimore City Public School System. However, after he obtained his GED he persistently continued his education through the years when he attended the Community College of Baltimore, Catonsville Community College, Coppin State University and the University of Maryland, Baltimore County. He served in the United States Army from 1968 until 1971. Arthur worked at various jobs as a Cashier at Pimlico Race Track, Fiscal Specialist, Fiscal Auditor and Quality Assurance Specialist. His most recent employment was as an Enforcement Specialist with the Baltimore Office of Child Support and with the National Census Bureau.

At an early age, Arthur married Edythe Mason. The marriage ended in divorce, but their union blessed them with two children, Tracey and Gary Young. Later, Arthur married Felisa Tuner and together they raised her three daughters, Sonja, Tyra and Kali Tuner.

Arthur was a friendly, easy going, fun-loving person whose favorite pastime was dancing. He regularly went out dancing and was very meticulous about his appearances and took pride in looking good. He had a great sense of humor and was a jokester. Sunday afternoons during the football season you would find Arthur hanging out at his brother, Berry's house. He loved cooking a variety of foods with his own special flair and sharing his creation. Listening to jazz, watching sports and being with his grandchildren made him happy. Arthur was a very strong, determined and hard working man who continue to work despite his battle with cancer. On October 17, 2010, Arthur departed this life after a lengthy illness.

He leaves to cherish his memory: beloved wife, Felisa Young; devoted mother, Lucine Young; loving daughter, Tracey Williams; son, Gary Young; three stepdaughters, Sonja Schmidt, Tyra Tuner and Kali Turner-Lodge; grandchildren, Mark, Kyle, and Jordon Williams; step-grandchildren, Bryan Turner-Bowers, Joshua Schmidt, Isaiah Willis, Pamela, Raquan and Raheem Ashe, Kalis and Ronnie Carter; step-great-grandchildren, Immanni Cordova; two sisters, Norma Y. Wyatt and Theresa Smith; three brothers, (Donald Young, his oldest brother, preceded him in death), Rodger Young, Frederick Young and Berry Young, three brother-in-law, three sister-in-law; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Arthur, you crazy dude, i know that God is enjoying His time with you up there. We had the best time in Junior High and were very close...spending a lot of time at your Carey St. house and my Appleton St. house. Sorry I didn't know about your funeral services as I would have come to pay my respects. Rest easy brother and God bless you and those you left behind.

“ Dear Uncle Arthur,
Although we didn't see each other much, whenever we did you made sure to talk to us about EVERYTHING! I will miss that. I will also miss your dance moves. I will never forget you at my wedding. Everytime I dance I will think of you! I miss you and love you so much. Please tell my dad that I miss him and I love him.

Love you,
Heather

“ I am very sorry for your loss of Arthur. The pain and grief can seem unbearable. At such times, we need to go to God's Word for comfort. (2 Cor. 1:34). We look forward to the time when Jesus words will be fulfilled at John 5:28 where he says "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."
