Miss you! Still checking your social media page for posts from you. This is going to take some time. I'll probably check again tomorrow, the next day, next week and next month.

My dearest cousins.

My heart is broken. Artisteen's life was simply PRECIOUS to me. Even though we did not chat everyday, she was always that personal companion to the Terry clan.

Words cannot begin to describe how much I will miss her. Yes, Facebook will never be the same either. I too will be "accidentally" checking her page for the latest discussion or a funny "good-morning-greetings"!

Family get-togethers will be INCOMPLETE without her loving smile. The next time we gather, I know several folk will say, "Don't start - Artisteen ain't here yet!".

Over many years, cousin Artisteen has always been my friend in words & deeds. It has been my honor to have known her.

“ You are so missed! I looked for you, because I hadn't heard from you, but that was a regular thing for us. Talk everyday and then a text here and there and back to talking everyday. Then I got this eery feeling that something was wrong. Too many things had happened and you hadn't called to talk about it. I called and called and called. No answer! We'd talk from your first job, then at night from your second job and cut up like crazy. For over 20 years. I finally looked on your facebook page. No Boonation comments. No good morning. I knew then something wasn't right .I scrolled down further to see the comments of RIP and RIH. MY heart stopped for a second and I screamed in disbelief. I still can't believe you're gone I still don't know what happened to you. However, I do know that you will be well taken care of.. I miss our late night conversations. Your laughter and just you listening to me rant. Well, my Friend, you will always be in my heart. I miss you! Rest well!!!!

“ Sending my deepest condolences to the family and friends. Ms.Hall and myself were coworkers for DSS. Throughout the years I worked with her, she was always quiet yet full of words, warm spirited, and humble. We would always laugh about her dim light in her office; her way of "keeping the peace around her". Whenever we had events, she would always volunteer to cook or bring the many serving dishes/cutery that she had!

Ms. Hall I will miss you! I thank God that I was able to share moments with you and learn from you! I know in my heart that your light now shines bigger, brighter, and in an everlasting place.

To the family: May the peace of Ms. Hall and God lay restfully in your souls until you meet again!

With love and respect,

Brandi Bell

“ We always had Good Times When I went to Her Home to Work For Her!! She Was Always Too Generous! I Had To Remind Her Constantly That Her Money Was Not Good To Me! She Paid Me As Far As I Am Concerned With All Of The Good Food She Cooked Or Bought Me! Have You Ever Seen Her Lunch?
She Was A Good Dresser With A Mean Boot Collection! Truly A Friend/ Sister With A Good Heart! May She Walk Around Heaven All Day With Nothing To Do Or Worry About!

“ Artisteen was so friendly and helpful. She would always lend a helping hand. Although she was about business she was also a comedic spirit. She could always keep you laughing. She will really be missed by the Social Services family. I give my deepest condolences to her family.
