ASHLEY BRUNSON quietly departed this life to enter life eternal with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on December 5, 2005. Ashley was born in Saluda, South Carolina on June 18, 1923, the daughter of the late Emily and Luke Gibson. She received her early education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Her church affiliation was with Mt. Ararat Baptist Church where she was a dedicated member. She is lovingly survived by: her daughter, Paula Harris; two granddaughters, Januari Perry and Lyndsey Harris; first cousin, Ivory Butler and his family; nieces, nephews; best friend, Naomi Moore; and a host of other relatives and friends. “ Words cannot express the love and sympathy Christopher and I have for you, Paula, Januari and Lindsey during this very challenging time. You know how much your mother and grandmother meant to me for more than 39 years. Remember that you are not alone. Ashley's whole life revolved around you, her family. She loved all of you very deeply and although she is physically no longer of this earth, please know that she will always be there in spirit to watch over you.##imported-begin##Hermione (Mickey) Hicks##imported-end##

“ To the family & friends of Ms. Brunson, I would like to express my sincere condolences for your great loss. Please know that Almighty God, Jehovah knows your pain and he promises to bring our loved ones back to us. At Isaiah 26:19 it says, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust..." This most wonderful promise gives us hope for our dead loved ones. In the near future this promise will be fulfilled once God's will takes place here on earth as it is in heaven. Your family is in my prayers.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
