

Ashley Renee Gilliam

October 14, 1984 - August 16, 2020

Ashley Renee Gilliam was born October 14, 1984 in Richmond, Virginia. She Attended Henrico County Schools and graduated from Virginia Randolph. Ashley also received her Associate Degree on line in Criminal Justice from University of Phoenix.

As a baby Ashley was born with health issues, but, she never let that stop her. Even when she was hospitalized she would call checking on her family, and tell them she was bored and wanted some real food. Ashley was a loving daughter, granddaughter, sister, niece, cousin and a devoted aunt. She always loved pampering herself, traveling, social media, and taking selfies. She would always let you know what was going on with her. She loved family events, and always made her special cupcakes.

When Ashley said goodnight to Granny, Pops, Shawnie, and NaNa at 1:00 a.m., Sunday morning, it was her last.

Until we meet again my family.

She is survived by her loving grandparents who raised her, George and Candace Quash; mother, Deborah Holland; step father, Anthony Holland; two sisters, Tashawndae Woodson, and Charniece Holland; two nieces, Natalya Woodson and Ayva Williams; two aunts; Renee (Clyde) Pleasants and Angela Quash; three first cousins; Chris Milby, Jessica and Branden Pleasants, four great aunts; Callie Smoot, Patricia Irby, and Mary Whitfield; four great uncles; Wilbert (Jackie) Curtis, Anthony (Frances) Quash, Raymond (Delores) Quash, and Joseph Temple: among them two devoted, Maude (Robert) Winston; father, Anthony Gilliam; a host of cousins and other relatives and friends.
