

Ashton Isaiah Black

March 19, 1993 - November 6, 2009

Ashton Isaiah "Petey" Black entered into eternal rest on November 6, 2009 in a sudden act of unselfish love. He was preceded in death by his father, Wilbert Isaiah Woodley and grandmother, his heart Ethel Williams. His brother Aaron D. Brown shortly followed him into eternal rest. "Petey" was born in Richmond, Virginia on March 19, 1993 and lived each day to the fullest. He chose Jesus Christ as his personal savior and attended the Little Elam Baptist Church in Charles City, Virginia. He attended Henrico High School in Henrico, Virginia, where he was a member of the Henrico High School Gospel Chorus and the NJROTC. "Petey" excelled in baseball with hopes of making the sport a continued part of this life. Though he loved to participate in baseball, he had a great love for football, mostly especially the Dallas Cowboys. He leaves to cherish his memory, his loving and caring mother, Dannette Black Brown; his equally loving and caring stepfather, Gregory D. Brown, Sr.; one devoted sister, Asheli Black; one brother, Gregory D. Brown, Jr.; devoted grandparents, Daniel R. Black, Alvin C. Williams (Pickle) and Grace Woodley; devoted aunts and uncles, Kendall Black, DeVondus Booker (Brenda), Helen C. Miles, Marie Woodley and Franklin Crump; many great aunts and uncles, Jammie C. Williams (Leithia), one devoted, Lawrence and Susan Woodley; devoted godfathers, Kendall and James Black, II; many cousins, one devoted, Markus Woodley; four devoted godbrothers, Matthew, Nathan and Ryan Hurdle and Emmanunelle Jones; a host of other family and friends, devoted Tandra and Dominic Jones and George

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you take comfort in knowing that very soon our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that he will by means of his son Jesus bring our 'enemy to nothing' (1Corinthians 15:26). What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. I did not know Ashton but I know the sorrow and grief that comes with losing a loved one to death, especially an untimely death. Please be assured that very soon this sorrow will no longer exist. God promises that "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3,4) and He provides the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death. As we await the wonderful fulfillment of this promise, may you continue to find comfort, not only in your precious memories, but also from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulations." (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) Please feel free to contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful hope given to us by our loving Father, Jehovah.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 20:9-12 reports on the death and resurrection of a young man named Eutychus. These verses demonstrate what will take place in God's new world. May you receive much comfort and strength from this resurrection hope in the days ahead. Also, may you draw closer to Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ. (Psalm 83:18, John 3:16)##imported-begin##SharonHill##imported-end##
