

Ashy Danelle Long

July 2, 1987 - April 29, 2017

Ashy Danielle Long, daughter of Alexander Willis Long, Sr. and Charlene Henderson (deceased), was born on July 2, 1987 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on April 29, 2017. Ashy loved life and enjoyed it to the fullest. She also loved basketball and boy, could she play!

Ashy was educated in the Baltimore County School System. Upon completion of high school, she received a full scholarship in basketball to attend Baltimore City Community College. As the result of a tragic knee injury, Ashy's basketball career came to an end. In spite of this setback, Ashy continued her education and received her certification in early childhood education.

Ashy met and married the love of her life, the former Mercedes Thurman, and from this union gained one beautiful daughter, De'Shawna. They excitedly awaited the birth of their second child, due in June.

Ashy leaves to cherish her memory: her loving wife, Mercedes Thurman-Long; one daughter, De'Shawna and unborn daughter Ashy; her devoted father, Alexander Willis Long; her siblings, Alexis Lisa Long and Alexander Willis Long, Jr. with whom Ashy maintained a strong and loving relationship, and an unbreakable bond; one nephew, Donte' Walker, Jr.; her mother-in-law, Veronica Thurman; one sister-in-law and on brother-inlaw, and her special friend, Donte' Walker, whom she considered her brother. Ashy Danielle Long leaves a host of other relatives and friends, and will be sorely missed by all who knew her.
