

Aubrey Reginald Alston, Sr.

June 28, 1948 - September 7, 2015

A precious one from us is gone voice we loved is still
A place is vacant in our hearts that never can be filled.

Aubrey Reginald Alston, Sr., 67, was born June 28, 1948, in Rocky Mount, North Carolina to the late Dorothy B. and James H. Alston. He was called to enter the pearly gates of Heaven and to be with his Savior Monday, September 7, 2015.

He was raised by his mother and step-father, Elwood Dungee. June 1967, he graduated from Armstrong High School and immediately began his career that summer working at John Marshall High School in the Maintenance Department. There, he met his love, Eunice Turner and on October 7, 1978 they married. From their union, Shyrron and Aubrey Jr. were born. Later, he started working for Creative Screen Printing where he learned a new trade and changed his career.

Aubrey was the light of his family and a true reflection of God's love. His life was touched by God; in he turn touched everyone around him with that love. "Reginald" to family and friends, was an adoring father, brother, protector of his family and an extremely generous grandfather. He cared deeply for his loved ones and was an outstanding example of a charitable human being. No matter the situation, somehow, he always managed to put the needs of others before his own.

Aubrey will always be remembered as a devoted and loving husband to his special love, Eunice. He leaves his doting wife of 36 years to cherish his memory along with daughter, Shyrron Alexander (Terrell); two sons, Aubrey R. Alston Jr. and Aubrey R. Graves; two sisters, Barbara Alston Bell (Charlie) and Rev. Audrey Regina Wilkins; three grandchildren, Keron A. Middleton, Darrian K. Alexander, and Terrell J. Alexander; one great-granddaughter, Londyn-Rose E. Davis; adopted granddaughter, Jada Morrison and a great-granddaughter, Naazira Morrison; and a host of other relatives and friends.
