“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. It is only natural that we yearn to see our loved ones again since God put time indefinite into our hearts (Eccl3:11). The Bible teaches about a future time when those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29; Psalm55:22). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Deepest Sympathy, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I am so sorry that you lost your dear loved one. Look to the GOd of all comfort who comforts us during all of our trials, and helps us to endure through pain and sorrow. Read his word, the bible, which gives us the wonderful hope of the ressurection. Jehovah sent us his beloved son, so that through his ransom sacrifice, we might be forgiven for our sins and obtain everlasting life. One day their will be no more sickness or death or pain on this earth, and our loved ones will be ressurected back to life. John 3:16 tells us, "For GOd loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." Acts 24:15 promises that their will be a ressurection, and Jesus brought many back to life while he was here on earth. In the near future, he will bring many millions back to life, because the dead will hear his voice and come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29. May the hope of seeing Aubrey be a comfort to you, and help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
