

Audrey Brown

June 15, 1933 - June 24, 2002

Audrey Brown was a gift from our heavenly Father to Mable Allen and George Gross on June 15, 1933 in Baltimore, Maryland. Audrey affectionately known as Mom-may or Sugar Bunch by family and close friends departed this life on Monday, June 24, 2002 after a courageous battle with heart disease. Audrey was intelligent and successfully completed her general education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She was the recipient of various awards throughout her school years. Audrey's late and beloved stepfather, Matthew Allen, was a very positive influence in her life especially during her early adulthood. Mr. Allen's care and attention helped Audrey, then a single parent, raise her two young sons, Tyrone and Lenny. She later met and subsequently married the late Roland J. Boone. From this union they had seven children. Sandra, Annette, Audrey, Cozanne, Rolette, Rodney and Corrine. In the prime of her life (1980), she met and married the love of her life, the late Leonard L. Brown. They became the best friends and soulmates during their time together. This was one of the happiest, prosperous and most productive times of her life. Audrey loved children and worked in the child daycare provider and opened her own business, Little Pal's Daycare Center, in 1986. Audrey built and expanded the center to become one of the top ten daycare and infant care providers in Baltimore City. Audrey's dedication to her profession earned her the respect and admiration from all parties she touched, particularly the children throughout her notable career in the daycare industry. She goes to join her mother, Mable Allen, stepfather, Matthew Allen; son, Tyrone

Armstrong; daughter, Corrine Betty and grandson, Lamarr Carpenter. She leaves to cherish her loving memory: seven children, Lenny Carpenter, Sandra McArthur, Annette, Audrey, Cozanne, Rolette and Rodney Boone; one daughter-in-law, Nancy Carpenter; two sons-in-law, James McArthur and Samuel Betty; fifteen grandchildren; twelve great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
