“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy but the bible gives us real hope for our loved ones at Rev 21:3&4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Jehovah God promises that he will wipe out death and will take away the pain we feel when we loose our loved ones. How comforting it is to know about what Jehovah will do for us in the soon future. I hope that this brings your family some comfort during this difficult time.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

To Audrey's family, Audrey was the best gift that God shared with our family. She helped to raise REBekah. They even planted a pumpkin patch and a peach tree with seeds. Audrey made the last few years of Myrtle's life happy and meaningful. She helped me through a difficult pregnancy, feeding me well and caring for the whole household. I wish I could have let her know how much she meant to me and my family. She was definitely a gift from God and I'm sure that he is letting her know now what a blessing she was to so many people and how she changed our lives for the better. love, Kathy Cook and family.
